

Kylah Limmer

Head of Defence & Intelligence
Fujitsu Australia and New Zealand

As the Head of Defence & Intelligence at Fujitsu Australia and New Zealand, Kylah Limmer works closely with the Australian Defence Force (ADF) & the New Zealand Defence Force (NZDF) personnel to create trusted partnerships that successfully achieve capability outcomes. Kylah is passionate about driving collaboration between Defence and the Defence Industries, enabling the industry sector to fulfil their fundamental input to capability responsibilities in support of the Defence mission. Additionally, with Fujitsu's Japanese heritage, Kylah is keen to ensure the strong links between the Five Eyes (FVEY) plus one pathway to best position our Defence Forces as we counter the increasing security challenges within the IndoPacific region.

Kylah Limmer

With more than two decades of experience as a consultant and senior executive across the enterprise technology sector, Kylah maintains highly regarded relationships with the Australian Defence organisation, and the Defence industry ecosystem. She has proven expertise in leading high-performing teams who drive client-centric capability outcomes through deeply trusted customer relationships.

Alongside Defence relationships, Kylah is proudly a Defence industry advocate, holding several key leadership positions through recent years including Chair & currently Deputy Chair of Australian Defence Information and Electronic System Association (ADIESA) and the Industry Advisor for the ADF Cyber Skills Association. She has been invited to panels at several Defence conferences such as Military Communications and Information Systems (MilCIS), Defence Cyber Summit, and the Space 2.0 Summit.

Kylah holds a Degree in Security, Terrorism and Counter Terrorism. She is married with two daughters and lives in Canberra, ACT